Best wishes!

To Most Rev. Fr. Silvestre T. Robiñol
Saint Matthew Province
House of

BANGUI

Dearly beloved,

I share in your joy, that of your loved ones and of the confreres of the Province, and I send you my fraternal best wishes for the 25th anniversary of your priestly ordination.

This anniversary is an important milestone in your priestly life and offers you the opportunity to look back on the path you have traveled, to thank the Lord for the many gifts you have received, and to renew your commitment to begin again with new enthusiasm in the apostolate you are called to carry out.

On this occasion our gratitude also goes to your family members, formators and confreres who have accompanied you along this journey. I join you in your delight, united in prayer, and in the name of the Congregation, I express my heartfelt gratitude for your witness of fidelity, availability, and generous service to the Congregation and the Church.

May you continue on your way with these attitudes and reap abundant fruits from the apostolate you carry out.

With these wishes, imploring upon you the blessing of the Divine Superiors and of the Holy Founder, and wishing you a peaceful and holy Easter, I greet you with affection in the Lord.

(Fr. Bruno Rampazzo, R.C.J.)
