RE: 21st Anniversary of the Canonization of Saint Hannibal

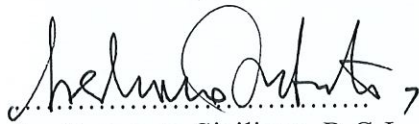

M.R. Superiors of the Rogationist
Circumscriptions and Confreres
Their Communities

Dearest,

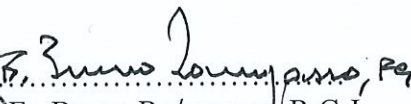

May 16, 2025, marks the 21st anniversary of the canonization of our holy Founder, Father Hannibal Maria Di Francia. Our affection as his children moves us to give thanks to the Lord for having given this great gift to us, to the Rogate Family and to the Church. The charism of the Rogate, which was the reason of the life of Saint Hannibal, with his canonization, through the recognition of his holiness, finds the way to spread more and more among the People of God.

We, his children, together with the Rogate Family, are called to promote all this, also because of our own religious consecration. I therefore invite you to live this day with this spirit, and I inform you that, to this end, you can find appropriate aids on our website.

With the hope that the month of May that is starting, finds us ever closer to our Divine Superior, the Immaculate Virgin Mary, I greet you with affection in the Lord.

Fr. Fortunato Siciliano, R.C.J.
Secretary General

Fr. Bruno Rampazzo, R.C.J.
