(updated on December, 2020)

January

January 1

Death anniversary of BROTHER OMOBONO PIETRO BIANCA

He was born on January 20, 1907 in Curinga (Catanzaro, Italy) and entered the Avignone Houses as an orphan, at 16. On December 8, 1925, at his entrance to the Novitiate, the Founder gave him the name Omobono of Mary Immaculate. After carrying out various activities with the orphans in Messina and Oria, from 1948 onward, the Mother House in Messina became his home, as a Brother assigned to the orphans, to the liturgical services in the Sanctuary, and as its organist. In 1988, he was appointed Knight of the Italian Republic. Very fond of Messina, he gave a testimony in the two Canonization Processes of Father Founder. He died on January 1, 1992.

And of FATHER VINCENT CHINWEM ANUFORO

He was born in Umueme Uzoagba, (Nigeria) on July 18, 1960. Before knowing the Rogationists in Lagos, he started a school for poor children. He entered the Congregation in 1992, made his perpetual profession in Naples on March 19, 1999, and was ordained a priest in Frascati (Rome) on June 24, 2000. Initially assigned to the boys in Bari and Matera and then to Bordonaro (Messina), in 2011 he moved to the Theology Seminary of Rome. A zealous priest, he founded the Solidarity and Fraternity Mission Association in support of the work he had begun in his youth. Towards the end of 2012, he contracted a lung infection that turned fatal. He died in Rome on January 1, 2013.

Let us remember them in our prayers.

January 2

Death anniversary of FATHER SALVATORE SOTTILE

He was born in Barcelona Pozzo di Gotto (Messina, Italy) on August 24, 1929, and entered the Congregation in 1942. He made his perpetual profession in Assisi on September 29, 1955 and was ordained a priest in Trani on July 13, 1958. After performing several assignments in the Houses of Messina - Christ the King and Matera, he was transferred to Tarragona (Spain) in 1975 and a year later to Brasilia (Brazil), where he worked until 1989. After a brief stint in Sao Paulo and in Chile in 1994, he was assigned to the House of Tucuman (Argentina). He was a zealous and ever available Religious. He died on January 2, 2006, after a long illness. Let us remember him in our prayers.

January 3

Death anniversary of BROTHER SALVATORE LABARBUTA

He was born in Minervino Murge (Bari, Italy) on October 11, 1906. On September 29, 1935, he was received in Trani as an aspirant to be a Coadjutor Brother. He entered the Novitiate on September 29, 1936, and consecrated himself to the Lord two years later. On September 26, 1944, he made his perpetual profession. He lived the years of World War II between Messina and St. Lucia del Mela. Later, he was in Trani, Naples, Bari, Matera, and finally in Messina at the Institute for the deaf and hard of hearing. He died on January 3, 1974, in the Cappellani clinic in Messina. Let us remember him in our prayers.

January 8

Death anniversary of FATHER PASQUALE DONVITO

He was born in Gioia del Colle (Bari, Italy) on July 27, 1934, and entered the Congregation in Trani in 1947. He made his perpetual profession in Assisi on September 29, 1956 and was ordained a priest in Oria on July 28, 1963. Initially, he was assigned as a formator in Desenzano and Naples, and from 1972, in San Demetrio, Naples, Bari, and Trani. He was simple, humble, and jovial. He placed the means of social communication at the service of the new evangelization, as long as his strength allowed him. While in Trani, as collaborator in the apostolate of the parish and shrine, he was struck by a serious illness, which led to his death on January 8, 2013. Let us remember him in our prayers.

January 11

August 20

Death anniversary of BROTHER COSIMO ERCULEO

He was born in Ceglie Messapica (Brindisi, Italy) on February 4, 1922. He was welcomed in the House of Trani on December 29, 1938. He was an available, pious and devout religious, and made his first profession on September 29, 1941. He was preparing for the perpetual profession, when, on the afternoon of August 20, 1944, he felt sick while swimming in the sea near Trani and began to seek for help. Brother Gennaro Stregola rushed to the rescue, but this was fatal for both of them. Together they drowned, and the resuscitation attempts after bringing the bodies to the shore were in vain.

And of BROTHER GENNARO SFREGOLA

He was born in Barletta (Bari, Italy) on May 23, 1910. Upon advice of Msgr. Raffaele Dimiccoli he joined the Third Order of St. Francis. Then, on November 6, 1936, he was received at Trani as an aspirant to become a Coadjutor Brother. In the same House, he made the first profession on March 30, 1939, and his perpetual vows on September 29, 1942. Very pious and devout to the Virgin Mary, he used to stay long, even at night, before the Blessed Sacrament. Humble and hardworking, he never avoided any labor. In the afternoon of August 20, 1944, he tried to save Brother Cosimo Erculeo from drowning in the sea, but his effort was in vain and ended in the most tragic way for both religious.

And of FATHER GENNARO EUPREPIO

He was born in Erchie (Brindisi) on March 22, 1925. He entered the Congregation in Oria on November 21, 1936, perpetually professed in Assisi on March 19, 1949, and was ordained a priest in Messina on August 3, 1952. In the early years of his ministry he was engaged as an educator in the houses of Padua, Trani, and Assisi. After graduating in pedagogy and specializing in working with the blind and deaf, he worked in 1972 in Messina – Institute for the Deaf, Bari, Oria, and from 2002, at the Mother House, as a collaborator in the basilica-sanctuary of St. Anthony. Illness forced him to a wheelchair, but it did not prevent him from exercising the ministry of confessions punctually, until the last days of his life. He fell asleep peacefully in the Lord, at the age of 94, on August 20, 2019.

Let us remember them in our prayers.

Afflicted by diabetes, he gradually lost his sight and had to be hospitalized at the Oasi di Nazareth Clinic in Corato (Bari). He endured the test of his sickness with faith and fell asleep in the Lord on August 26, 2004. Let us remember him in our prayers.

August 31

Death anniversary of FATHER TEODORO TUSINO

He was born in Casalnuovo Monterotaro, (Foggia, Italy) on March 23, 1899. He was received into the Apostolic School (= Minor Seminary) of Oria in 1911. Still a cleric, he was one of the initiators of the Bollettino della Rogazione Evangelica del Cuore di Gesu (The Rogationist Bulletin). On June 14, 1924, he was ordained a priest in the Cathedral of Messina. He was the Director of the orphans of the Mother House. From 1932, he was the Superior of the House of Oria. In the first General Chapter, he was elected General Councilor. In 1937, he returned to Messina and began to work for the cause of beatification of Father Founder. In December 1947, he was elected Superior General, which he assumed until July 1956. He then became the Postulator of the cause of beatification of Father Founder, and devoted himself entirely to the study of his writings and life, handing on to us the Father's spirit through various publications. He died in Rome on August 31, 1980.

And of FATHER GIUSEPPE PITRONE

Born in San Pier Niceto (Messina, Italy) on April 26, 1909. He entered the House of Oria on August 15, 1922 as an aspirant. On April 19, 1931 he made his perpetual vows and on June 8, 1935 he was ordained a priest in Messina. He spent the early years of his apostolate in the formation of orphans and of the religious students in Oria, Trani, and, from 1939 to 1945, in Messina. He was the Superior of the House of Rometta from 1947 to 1952, then he transferred to Messina - Christ the King, where, for about fifty years, he dedicated himself to confessions and to spiritual direction, taking care also of the chaplaincy of the Temple-Monument of Christ the King. Affected by the disease which had damaged his nervous system during the World War II, he was always exemplary in his fidelity to religious life. He died on August 31, 2000. Let us remember them in our prayers.

He was born in Santeramo (Bari, Italy) on February 7, 1922. He entered in Oria on October 19, 1935, made his perpetual profession in Trani on September 29, 1947, and was ordained a priest in Assisi on July 8, 1951. In the following years, he worked as a formator for the orphans and seminarians in Trani, Oria, Padua, Florence, Naples, and Messina - Cristo Re, where from 1972, he was also Superior for some years. Spiritual father in Zagarolo, Naples, and Messina, he was later transferred to the Mother House, where he collaborated from 1998 to 2012 in the activities of the Shrine. In need of treatment, he then passed to San Cesareo, where he died on November 20, 2016, the day of the closing of the Jubilee Year of Mercy. Always jovial and helpful, he knew how to give a beautiful testimony of religious and priestly life. Let us remember him in our prayers.

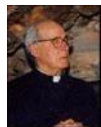

November 22

Death anniversary of BROTHER STELLARIO SPADA

He was born in Sava (Taranto, Italy) on July 9, 1905. He entered the House of Oria on March 30, 1917. From there he went to Messina to continue his studies and Father Founder admitted him to receive the religious habit on December 8, 1923, changing his first name Antonio into that of Stellario. He was the first admired organist of the Shrine of St. Anthony. He attended the Lyceum and the first years of Theology at the Archdiocesan Seminary of Messina. To prepare for priesthood, he grew in piety, obedience and humility. However, after receiving the first two Minor Orders on December 8, 1927, he was affected by a sudden form of pulmonary phthisis. He died in Oria, where he had moved for health reasons, on November 22, 1928.

And of BROTHER COSIMO GALETTA

He was born on May 2, 1913 in Ceglie Messapica (Brindisi, Italy). He entered the House of Trani in 1936. On September 29, 1939, he made his first profession, and, after three years, his perpetual vows. He remained in the House of Trani until 1952, taking care of the pantry and of the garden. Then, he transferred to Bari, where he remained until the end of his life. From 1966, he organized various initiatives to raise funds for the construction of the parish church. With the same commitment, he devoted himself to promoting the veneration of the Madonna della Grotta Shrine, to which he had a great devotion. Affected by Alzheimer's disease, he died at the Villa del Sole Clinic on November 22, 1997. Let us remember them in our prayers.

November 24

Death anniversary of BROTHER FRANCESCO MARIA DRAGO

He was born in Galati Mamertino (Messina, Italy) on March 6, 1882. He was approached by Fr. Giuseppe Antonio Meli while he was tending the sheep to graze in the fields. He then entered the Avignone Houses on November 29, 1905. Father Founder gave him the religious habit on April 21, 1907, and changed his baptismal name Gaetano into Francesco Maria del Bambino Gesù. On May 10, 1908, the Founder admitted him to the profession of the vows. He was a youth of intense spiritual life, devout and zealous. When many hopes were placed on him, he was affected by bone tuberculosis that led him to the end. He passed away in the Lord in Messina on November 24, 1908. Let us remember him in our prayers.

November 25.

Death anniversary of FATHER FILIPPO PUNTRELLO

He was born in Acquaviva Platani (Caltanissetta, Italy) on November 25, 1936. He entered the Congregation in Messina in 1948. There he made his perpetual profession on September 29, 1959, and was ordained a priest on August 10, 1963. In the first years of ministry, he was a formator in Desenzano, then worked in the parish apostolate from 1966 to 1983 in Rome and Naples. In 1984, he became the Superior in Padua, and in 1987, with Fr. Antonio Barbangelo, he started the presence of the Congregation in Aluva, India. For 12 years, therefore, he carried out his apostolate, alternating his time as a formator in India and as a collaborator at the shrine of Messina. In 1999, he was assigned to Sanger, USA, where he remained until his last days as Parish Priest and Superior of the House. He died on November 25, 2012, Solemnity of Christ the King. November 28

Death anniversary of BROTHER VINCENZO ARPINO

He was born in Minori (Salerno, Italy) on November 13, 1915. On February 19, 1947, at 32, he entered the Congregation in Trani, where he made his perpetual profession in 1955. Pious, hardworking and enthusiastic, he served the Lord in the Congregation in Messina, Trani, Taranto, and then again Messina, at the Institute for deaf and hard of hearing, where he remained until 2005. He always collaborated with his confreres, zealously performing his assignments. In December 2005, he was transferred to the House of San Cesareo for medical treatment. At the end of 2006, a sudden illness with internal bleeding compromised his already extremely delicate health, leading to his death, which occurred on the night of November 28, 2006. Let us remember him in our prayers.

November 30

Death anniversary of FATHER GIUSEPPE MARRAZZO

He was born in San Vito dei Normanni (Brindisi, Italy) on May 3, 1917. He entered the House of Oria on October 20, 1930, made his perpetual profession in Messina on September 24, 1940, and was ordained a priest in Barcellona Pozzo di Gotto (Messina) on May 9, 1943. After the priestly ordination, he understood that his mission was to share the Lord's mercy in silence, welcoming, and humility. Except for a short period from 1972 to 1974 in Zagarolo (Rome), he carried out his apostolate at the Shrine of St. Anthony in Messina as a confessor, spiritual director, Rector, and spiritual chaplain of the various lay associations, of the sick and of all those who were in need. Every year, he untiringly accompanied the sick people to Lourdes on special trains, radiating serenity and peace. He died on November 30, 1992. His cause of beatification is on the way. Let us remember him in our prayers.

He was born on August 31, 1897 in Galati Mamertino (Messina, Italy). He entered the Institute in Francavilla Fontana (Brindisi) on May 29, 1909, following the path already set by his brothers and cousins. On April 28, 1912, Father Founder admitted him to receive the religious habit at Oria, and changed his name Antonino into that of Mauro of St. Anthony of Padua. On May 3, 1914, he made his profession. He worked hard in the printing press and for any other needs of the Community. Very much devout to the Heart of Jesus, he was very attentive in the practice of virtues, especially of obedience and of the spirit of sacrifice. Affected by a severe form of tuberculosis, he was sent back to Galati to draw benefit from his native place, where instead he died on December 3, 1916.

And of BROTHER MARIANO DRAGO

He was born on December 4, 1890 in Galati Mamertino (Messina, Italy). In 1907, at the age of 17, he followed his brother Gaetano at the Avignone Houses in Messina. On December 8, 1908, Father Founder gave him the Rogationist habit. He had a great devotion to Our Lady and nurtured a particular filial affection for Father Founder, from whom he got a lot of confidential information regarding the beginnings and foundation of our Institution. He was an untiring worker, collaborating with Bro. Mauro in the printing press up to the point of sacrificing part of his night's rest. During his military service, he lost his sight and later was also affected by repeated attacks of epilepsy. He accepted the cross of his sickness with patience and serenity, and died in Messina on December 3, 1927.

Let us remember them in our prayers.

December 6

Death anniversary of BROTHER NICOLA MICHELINO LAPELOSA

He was born in Irsina (Matera, Italy) on September 8, 1898. He made his first profession on May 14, 1916 in Oria and the perpetual vows on May 10, 1928 in Messina. He attended to Father Founder during his last illness, in the residence of Fiumara Guardia. He remained at the Mother House in Messina, until his death, assigned to the care of the sacristy of the Shrine of St. Anthony, the Sala Obolo (Pence Room), and the Anthonian Benefactors Office. Kind, always available, a tireless worker and friendly with everyone, he was always faithful to the practices of piety. He endured a long illness with spirit of faith, and died on December 6, 1979. Let us remember him in our prayers.

December 8

Death anniversary of FATHER FRANCESCO BONAVENTURA VITALE

He was born in Messina, Italy on December 1, 1866 and ordained a priest on December 20, 1890. Cardinal Guarino appointed him Canon of the Metropolitan Church of Messina. After frequently encountering Father Founder at the Avignone District, he decided to enter the nascent Work on May 1, 1909, taking the name of Bonaventura. In Oria, he directed the first Apostolic School (=Minor Seminary). After the death of St. Hannibal, he succeeded him in the governance of the Congregation. His main concern was fidelity to the spirit of the Founder, of whom he wrote the first biography. He looked after the construction of the current Mother House in Messina. In 1945, he began the diocesan process for the Cause of beatification of St. Hannibal. He spent his last years in Messina - Christ the King, offering to God the sufferings of his sicknesses. He died on the night of December 8, 1950.

And of FATHER MARIO LONGHI

He was born in Lucera (Foggia, Italy) on June 2, 1921. He entered the Congregation in Messina on September 10, 1935. He made his perpetual profession in Rome, on April 23, 1947, and was ordained a priest in Assisi on June 29, 1950. He carried out his apostolate in Messina, Oria, Naples, Bari, Urbania, Trani, San Demetrio, Rome, and Assisi, where he lived for more than 20 years. Exemplary in human virtues, showing attachment to the Congregation and fidelity to religious life, he was assigned to the fields of education, pastoral activities, and many times as a Treasurer. In November 2011, because of a sudden deterioration of his health conditions, he was transferred to the House in San Cesareo where he bore his suffering with serenity until the day of his death, on December 8, 2011.

Let us remember them in our prayers.

December 14

Death anniversary of FR. CARMELO DRAGO

He was born on December 24, 1892 in Galati Mamertino (Messina, Italy). He was received by Father Founder at the Avignone District on April 2, 1908. After his first profession on April 24, 1910, he was transferred to the new House of Oria. He made his perpetual profession on April 22, 1923, and was ordained a priest on July 20, 1930. He was a General Councilor of the Congregation from 1932 to 1945. After the General Chapter of 1945, he was in charge of the construction of the Istituto Antoniano in Rome, and then, from 1947 to 1956, he directed the Mother House and the Institute for the deaf and hard of hearing in Messina. After being again a General Councilor until 1962, he was elected Superior General and held that office from 1962 to 1968. He had a great devotion for Father Founder and a preference for the orphans and the poor while not ignoring the propagation of the Rogate. He died on December 14, 1984. Let us remember him in our prayers.

December 16

Death anniversary of FATHER ORAZIO DI FINI

He was born in Cesarò (Messina, Italy) on 24 January 1915. He entered in Messina on October 19, 1931, made his perpetual profession in Oria on September 5, 1942, and was ordained a priest in Patti (Messina) on October 27, 1946. He collaborated to set up the Boys Village in Messina in the actual Institute Christ the King, where he worked as a Prefect until 1952. After carrying out his ministry in various Houses, he was assigned to the Mother House in Messina in 1967 as a collaborator of the Shrine of St. Anthony. Having become blind because of diabetes, he continued to make himself useful with zeal in the ministry of confession. He embraced the cross of his disease with serenity, offering everything for holy vocations. After having a leg amputated, his health deteriorated further and he died because of pleurisy on December 16, 1981. Let us remember him in our prayers.

And of FATHER VINCENZO VOLLERO

He was born in Naples, Italy on July 26, 1938. He entered the Congregation on October 12, 1949. He made his perpetual profession in Oria on September 25, 1960, and was ordained a priest in Trani on August 1, 1964. After a couple of years as Treasurer and vocation promoter in the House of Padua, he was transferred to Naples as a formator of the seminarians, and later as collaborator in the parish. There he remained until the end of his life, except for two short stays, in 2001 in Grottaferrata and in 2002 in Trani. Always diligent in his priestly and religious commitments, he distinguished himself for his joviality and his capacity for hospitality, which he put to good use in the pastoral care and spiritual accompaniment of numerous faithful and sick. Marked by diabetes, he died on the evening of December 16, 2016.

Let us remember them in our prayers.

26 December

Death anniversary of FATHER LUCA GAGLIARDI

He was born in Toritto (Bari, Italy) on June 3, 1937. He entered the Congregation in Oria on October 13, 1949, made his perpetual profession on September 27, 1959 in Oria, where he was ordained a priest on July 28, 1963. He began his apostolate in Bari and Subiaco with economic tasks. In 1970, after a brief experience in Spain, he was assigned to Desenzano as Superior.

He then worked in formation in Messina and Palermo and in managerial and economic roles in Morlupo - Printing Press, Messina, Palermo, and Grottaferrata. From 1992 to 1999, he collaborated with the General Treasurer in Rome and was later elected Provincial Treasurer, residing in Padua, where remained until December 26, 2017, the day of his sudden demise. Righteous and prudent, Fr. Luca was always faithful to the commitments of religious life and of the priesthood. Let us remember him in our prayers.

December 27

Death anniversary of BROTHER SEVERINO FERRERI

He was born a Chiaromonte (Potenza, Italy) on June 15, 1907. Since his youth, he wished to enter the Congregation, but he could not because he had to assist his mother and sisters after his father's death. Committed in the parish community, dedicated to social and charitable activities, he introduced many young people to priesthood and religious life, particularly to our Institute. Finally, on September 18, 1951, he entered in Trani, where he made his first profession on September 30, 1953, and the perpetual profession three years after. He carried out various tasks in Trani, Bari, San Demetrio, Grottaferrata, and Zagarolo. In him, the virtues of piety, self-sacrifice, patience and gentleness were very consistent. Tested by the cross of illness, on December 27, 1988, he fell asleep in the Lord at the Regina Apostolorum Hospital in Albano. Let us remember him in our prayers.

December 29

Death anniversary of FATHER PLACIDO CAMILLO RUGGERI

He was born in San Pier Niceto (Messina, Italy) on March 14, 1903. He entered the Congregation in Oria on January 4, 1916. There he received the religious habit on July 2, 1918, assuming the religious name of Camillo. After serving in the army during World War I, he made his perpetual profession in Oria on May 10, 1928 and was ordained a priest on July 20, 1930. Highly appreciated for his preaching, he carried out the offices of Superior and Treasurer in Assisi, Padua, Desenzano, and Oria. In 1962, he was elected a General Councilor and Procurator. Later on, he was engaged in spiritual direction and formation in Trani, Oria, and Morlupo. For health reasons, he retired at the General Curia in Rome, where he died of a heart attack on December 29, 1979. Let us remember him in our prayers.

December 30
