ROGATIONIST CALENDAR 2023

GENERAL CURIA - Rome

Original title: Calendario Rogazionista 2023

Approved for publishing:

Fr. BRUNO RAMPAZZO, RCJ
Superior General

One of our most important traditions is the diligent compilation of the yearly calendar for all our Houses. This is the means to keep piety alive through the celebration of the Feasts, novenas and triduums; all in honor of the Most High Lord Jesus Christ, of the Most Holy Virgin Mary, and of the Angels and Saints.

Thus, we perpetuate our pious traditions, commemorate our departed ones, and foster a spirit of piety and devotion in all our Houses.

(Fr. Hannibal, Writings, Vol. 30, p. 118)

GENERAL INDICATIONS

(PRAENOTANDA)

1. Let us be reminded of Masses, foreseen by the Norms, which are to be celebrated throughout the year, excluding those during the month of November and the special events that are mentioned at their respective time in the calendar:

a) Weekly

- In each community, a Mass is celebrated for the House, for the relatives of the Religious, and for the benefactors. The Superior, who is also a Parish Priest, fulfills the requirement for the above-mentioned intentions through the Mass Pro Populo.
- The Superior General celebrates one Mass for the Congregation.
- The Superior of Circumscription celebrates one Mass for the Circumscription.
- In the General Curia, a Mass is celebrated for the members of the Priestly Union.

b) Every priest celebrates the Mass for the spiritual and temporal interests of the Institute on the following days:

- Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus
- Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the BVM
- Commemoration of July 1st
- Anniversary of the Canonical approval of the Congregation (August 6)
- Solemnity of St. Hannibal Mary (June 1)
- Solemnity of St. Anthony of Padua (June 13)

c) Every priest celebrates the Mass

- for Vocations, possibly on the World Day of Prayer for Vocations
- for the Superior General on the anniversary of his election
- for the Superior of their Circumscription on the anniversary of his election or appointment.

d) In each House a Mass is celebrated annually for the civil authorities of the nation.

A single celebration satisfies all the requirements when several intentions fall on the same day. Every perpetually professed Religious may celebrate or have a Mass celebrated every month according to his intentions.

2. The important moments in the spiritual journey of the Community are the following:
 - the Community monthly recollection: when this is not possible to do so in common, let us find a way to do it personally even by shifts
 - the annual course of spiritual exercises of at least five days, distinct from updating courses, as planned in the community life project
 - the novenas, triduum, and vigils in preparation for the main feasts of the Church and of the Congregation.
3. The Rogationist Obituary contains brief biographical notes of all deceased confreres. It is read in the Community on the eve or on the day of the anniversary of the death, inviting the Brethren to offer appropriate suffrages. (Norms, 47)
4. During Community feasts, it is recommended to concelebrate even if it is a bination. (Eucaristicum Mysterium, May 25, 1967, No 47, CONGREGATION FOR DIVINE WORSHIP, In celebratione Missae, August 7, 1972, n. 1)
5. During the Monthly Father Founder's Day let there be a commemoration and the celebration of the votive Mass with its proper prayer of the faithful (see our Liturgical Proper), when it is allowed. If the Founder's Day falls on a Sunday or coincides with a feast, it may be transferred to any other convenient date.
6. Every year, in view of the reprinting of the calendar, the Superiors of the Rogationist Circumscriptions shall send to the General Curia the appropriate changes to be made, by September 30. On the part of the other confreres, reporting of eventual errors and omissions is appreciated.

7. The calendar indicates the proper celebrations of the Congregation according to the ordo approved by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments.
 8. The memorials of the heavenly Rogationists are opportunities to revitalize the charism of the Rogate.
 9. In the Lauds and Vespers of the Liturgical Proper, the Rogationist invocations/intercessions are omitted.
 10. The Saint of the day is taken from the Roman Martyrology (III Editio typica, 2004). For the Saints inserted in the universal liturgical calendar, the level of celebration is indicated.

In all Masses, all the faithful are reminded of their responsibility of increasing and sustaining vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Particular intentions for this purpose are included in the Prayers of the Faithful.

"This command of the Rogate, which was given by Jesus Christ to the teaching Holy Church, more than the learning Church since he used to tell his disciples, that is, to the apostles. Therefore, it is up to the Church to pray formally for this purpose... As experience shows, without this prayer, the very efforts of Bishops in forming good priests are mostly just an artificial culture of priests; but true vocations, as effective grace, must descend from on high, and if one does not pray, if one does not accomplish the command given by our Lord Jesus Christ with this divine Rogate, vocations from on high do not come, and the good results of so much toil and formation are not achieved! The remedy is the one indicated by Jesus Christ himself: not use it means to deny it, it means not to have good vocations."

December 25, Monday, THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD (Christmas), Solemnity

The three Christmas Masses (night, dawn, day) are justified primarily for liturgical reasons (to solemnize different hours of this holy day) and not for devotion. They offer the euchological and scriptural richness of the mystery of the Incarnation. Therefore, the three Masses should be celebrated or concelebrated at separate times, respecting the consistency between the formulary and the time of celebration.

THANKSGIVING AT THE END OF THE YEAR

At a pastorally appropriate time, in public and parish churches, thanksgiving to God for the benefits received during the past year is celebrated with a solemn rite. On this occasion it is a tradition dear to our people to sing the Te Deum. A plenary indulgence is attached to this celebration of thanksgiving. (Enchiridion Indulgentiarum, n. 60; Rogationists at Prayer, p. 110)

The Father [Founder] peremptorily enjoins us never to neglect this most noble duty of thanksgiving, not only because it is a great means of obtaining ever new graces and mercies, but even more because the Great-Giver of all goods deserves the greatest and most universal tribute of gratitude from every creature on earth. (P. Tusino, The Soul of the Father, Testimonies, pp. 688-689)

The traditional handing over of the “Polizzone of the Child Jesus” can be done at the conclusion of the New Year's Eve vigil, or on Epiphany, or when the Christmas holidays come to an end. (Rogationists at Prayer, p. 556).
